

LIGHTSTYLE

SPRING 2017

elements
at home

PARIS
City of Light

MAGICAL
Crystal

the most luxurious

lighting

TRENDS HOMES
COLOR

Dramatic views are an essential ingredient in these light, open and airy kitchens

A Delicious Point of View

Cutting-Edge Kitchens Overlooking Everything from Coastal Scenery to City Lights

written by Gwen Donovan

For pure inspiration in the kitchen, you simply can't beat a fantastic view. Imagine soaring skyline views or serene waterside panoramas, all framed by broad expanses of glass that bring the outside in. We discovered a selection of upscale kitchens that serve up ever-changing vistas throughout the day.

OPPOSITE: Iconic landmarks dominate the view from the kitchen in this luxury high-rise in Manhattan. Furniture and accessories by ddc (ddcnyc.com); Interior design – ODA New York (oda-architecture.com)

Kitchens

CITIZEN360 incorporates 84 homes in a 34-story SHoP Architects-designed condominium complex. Kitchens feature views of the evolving Yorkville neighborhood and the historic Upper East Side.

Photo courtesy of: Citizen360

RUSSIAN HILL
The kitchen in this sophisticated urban retreat by Zack | de Vito Architecture offers views of the San Francisco bay.

Photo courtesy of: Bruce Damonte

CIRCA CENTRAL PARK is an upper Manhattan residential development located at the corner of 110th Street where Frederick Douglass Boulevard meets Central Park West. Circa is ideally situated to provide unmatched and iconic Central Park views from the kitchen.

Photo courtesy of: Circa Central Park

Photo courtesy of: Prive at Island Estates

Photo courtesy of: Bruce Damonte

PRIVÉ AT ISLAND ESTATES is anchored in the Aventura Intra-coastal Waterway on the last private island in South Florida, offering 360-degree water views from the kitchens due to its flow-through, open floor design in every residence.

LAIDLEY STREET
A modern, eco-sensitive, urban kitchen by Zack | de Vito Architecture overlooks city views of San Francisco.